AIMS OF THE COURSE

The aim of the course is to adequately prepare candidates for the Migration Advice Profession Knowledge Entry (MAPKE) Examination, as prescribed by the Migration Agents Registration Authority (MARA) and conducted by the Australian Council for Education Research (ACER).

The six-day course comprises intensive instructions on the various topics covered by MARA's Statement of Objectives and Learning Outcomes and interactive workshops where participants will take part in tutorial exercises which will consist of sample questions along the format of the MAPKE Examination.

At the end of the course, it is anticipated that participants will satisfactorily achieve the following principles:

- Have an understanding and appreciation of the law, policy and contemporary issues in relation to matters concerning Australian Immigration
- Have a basic working knowledge of Australia's immigration legislation and policy, and be in a position to offer sound advice to prospective clients in matters relating to Australian Immigration
- Have an understanding of the practice and procedures of the Australian Department of Immigration and Multicultural and Indigenous Affairs (DIMIA) and the various merits and judicial review authorities
- Have gained confidence in providing immigration assistance to clients
- Have an awareness of the ethics and responsibilities of being a migration agent
- Have an understanding on the practical aspects of operating an office, eg office administration, general and trust accounting, management of files and correspondences, etc
- Have confidence in preparing for and passing the MAPKE Examination
