Thomas Becker
SAP AG

Thomas Becker holds a computer science degree of Johann-Wolfgang Goethe University in Frankfurt/Main, Germany. Thomas joined SAP AG as a developer in October 1990. Thomas has worked as Development Manager for EDI and IDoc interfaces for about 8 years. After contributing himself to normative work in OASIS and UN/CEFACT until 2001, Thomas is now heading SAP's "Integration Solutions Technologies" group. The group's work is dedicated to the development of Remote Function Call, ALE technology, connectors for Java and .NET platforms, and last but not least Web Services runtime.
